You Have Rights

You have rights guaranteed to you by state and federal laws. As a resident of a licensed or certified Wisconsin Long Term Care facility, you have rights guaranteed to you by state and federal laws. You have rights guaranteed to you by state and federal laws. You have rights guaranteed to you by state and federal laws.

Ombudsman Program

1-800-815-0015

The Board on Aging and Long Term Care

Wisconsin

You have the right to

Self-Determination

regarding your QOL.

Independence and choices

These assurances promote your

and Self-Determination.

based on your rights to dignity.

You Have the Right to:

- Be involved in all decisions even if you are unable to do so.
- Someone else makes them for you.
- Be kept informed of your medical and financial conditions.
- You choose to be independent and make your health care and financial decisions.
- Choose your health care provider and treatment.
- Request discontinuation of health care and services.
- Be offered choices and allowed to participate.
- Be included in decisions even if you
- Someone else makes them for you.
- Be kept informed of your medical and financial conditions.
- You choose to be independent and make your health care and financial decisions.
- Choose your health care provider and treatment.
- Request discontinuation of health care and services.
- Be offered choices and allowed to participate.
- Be included in decisions even if you
You have the right to:

Transfer or Discharge

You have the right to:

Access

You have the right to:

You have the right to:

You have the right to:

Privacy

You have the right to:

Dignity

You have the right to:

Grievances

You have the right to:

Notification